NOVEMBER 2017

It's that time of the year again...can you believe it? Especially hard to believe that the holidays are around the corner given the beautifully warm weather we have been experiencing.

Soon you will be receiving information about stewardship as you contemplate what gifts you will give to UMC in order for us to continue our missions and ministries. I invite you to begin to prayerfully consider that now. Think about how God has blessed you this year. Take some time and write down, actually write down, what you are grateful for this year.

I have gone back to a practice I used to do a long time ago. As a result of the Daniel Plan I was inspired to do a Gratitude Journal each night. I write down three things I am thankful for that day. It has been a wonderful way to reflect on my day and see the way God has been at work in my life. Oftentimes it has been God at work through other people. One night I was thankful for one of the youth team members for the upcoming Emmaus Retreat and the prayer she offered. One night I was thankful for someone who gave me a book she thought would be good for me to read. One night I was thankful for someone who took me out for lunch. Last Saturday I was thankful for all the people who worked so hard to make the Sew-A-Thon such a success. Oh, and I was very thankful for the people who I have studied with in our Daniel Plan small group. They have been such a blessing!

Some of the things I experienced during my day would have just been taken for granted if I hadn't taken the time to stop and reflect. It only takes a couple of minutes each night, but boy are those precious minutes that have changed my life! As a result of fostering an attitude of gratitude it has inspired me to give back and work to make someone else's life brighter by sharing God's love.

Take some time—sit down, take out some old fashioned paper and pen -- and write down what your thankful for. Where have you been blessed by God? What have you taken for granted? Then take some time to think about ways you can pay it forward and give back so that someone else can reflect at the end of the day and be grateful.

In Christ's Love,

Pastor Macode

If so, please submit your loved one's name online (www.umcmonroe.org) or complete an All Saints' Day form from a Sunday bulletin (forms can also be found on the table in the Narthex) and drop it in the collection plate.

Family Game Night and Sandwich Making is Saturday, November 18, from 6:00 pm – 8:00 pm. Bring your favorite game and a snack to share. Speaking of food ... please bring your sandwich items along ... we'll be making sandwiches for delivery to Spooner House in Shelton on Sunday, November 19. If you can't make it to Game Night, no worries! We'll be collecting sandwiches on Sunday morning – you can bring your donation with you to church! Our goal is to make 100 sandwiches -- they should have meat, cheese and no condiments and must be individually wrapped. A sign up sheet will be available one week prior to collection.

Spooner House also expressed a need for cleaning products -- paper towels, sponges, cleaning wipes, toilet paper, scrub brushes, cleaning brushes, etc. Just bring your cleaning product donation to Game Night or on Sunday morning along with your sandwiches! For questions please contact Ethel Abraham.

THE DANIEL PLAN

"It's been great!"

The Saturday morning Daniel Plan group has been a huge success. With 12 people participating, we have learned a lot about how God wants us to take care of our bodies to be healthy and fit so we can serve God and others. Would you like to learn how faith, food, fitness, friends and focus can change your life for the better? Here is your chance.

If you would be interested in participating in a weeknight group from early November through mid-December, please contact

Bill Florin at billflorin@yahoo.com or by phone at 203.268.8539. Together, we can stand Daniel Strong against the seemingly inevitable holiday bulge and have the momentum to move into the new year on a different, healthier path.

Please think about the evening that would be best for you. Pray about how God is nudging you to try it. Speak with other participants to learn about the fun we have as we build stronger friendships and support each other. God wants you to succeed in your life, and The Daniel Plan could help you on your path to success.

What can we ever say to such wonderful things as these? If God is on our side, who can ever be against us? Since he did not spare even his own Son for us but gave him up for us all, won't he also surely give us everything else? - Romans 8:31-32 (The Living Bible)

HARVEST DINNER

September 30, 2017

In keeping with the start of autumn and the changing of the seasons, we took our Harvest Fest and turned it into a Harvest Dinner. It was a new approach to a traditional event. And, yes, it worked! We simplified the menu but still included the delicious pulled pork, popular baked potatoes and famous “apple crumb” pie. From 4 to 8 pm, we had a steady crowd of diners and visitors joining us in our cozy sanctuary to enjoy a great meal. We also offered take out as an option.

Thank you everyone for all you did to make the dinner (and pies) a success -- making/baking pies, pulling or heating pork, shopping/prepping the rest of our menu items, decorating, moving chairs and tables, serving, last minute shopping, putting up/taking down signs, cleaning, smiling. A special shout out to Darlene Dobler-Palin, Sheryl Rajpolt and Gene Rajpolt (John’s brother who was visiting) for standing at the road edge and bringing diners in!

An extra “BIG” thanks to Kathy Schmalkuche for coming up with a new and distinctive logo; and also all her work on getting the word out to all our usual sources plus designing/printing flyers, postcards, menus and for keeping all the apple pie orders straight. Not to mention being my sounding board throughout all the planning!

I’d like to thank our musicians including That Virginia, Zach Anderson, Steph Serenita, and Randy Newbury of Forget Paris. Randy was a HUGE help in assisting me to “book” these very fine, guitar-playing singers to come out and entertain us.

Thank you to Cindy Booth for the weeding and mum planting just in time. Even our landscaper, Greg Peters of Utopian Gardens in Newtown, got the grass cut and leaves blown to make our church “home” look so nice! And, of course, thanks to Betsy Sword for all her decorating techniques which included window lights!

Be sure to read the article in Eye on Monroe by Carol Banner, Editor. Carol has been covering our events for several years and always does a super job!

As I have emphasized every year, the success of such an event is not always in the profits, but in the fellowship and fun we have celebrating our church family. It’s getting together with our family and friends at “our place”.

Working for God,

Rose Aiello, Chairperson

Dress a Girl Around the World

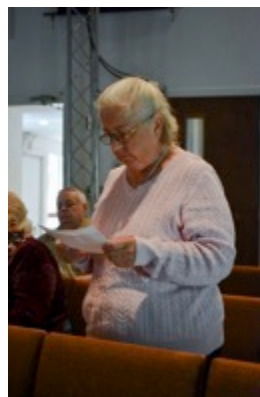

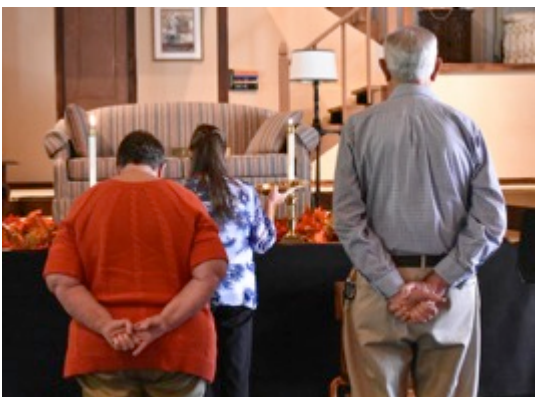

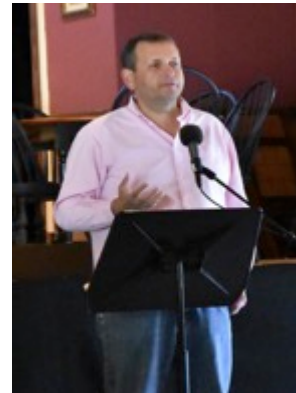

Sew-A-Thon

Saturday, October 21, was a great day at UMC Monroe! We thank everyone who came out to cut, sew, stitch and iron 105 dresses for girls around the world! It was a time of fellowship for UMC Monroe, the Greater Monroe Community, Girl Scout Troop 34219, friends and family ... of all ages! A special thank you to Ethel Abraham and the Missions Team for hosting this event and to Liz Skarzynski, our Southern Connecticut Ambassador of Dress a Girl Around the World. There will be 105 girls in Uganda receiving their new dresses soon!

LAITY SUNDAY

A Laity Sunday service was held on October 22. Laity Sunday is a special day in the Methodist church tradition where we recognize and celebrate the work and mission of all laity (not just clergy). Our work is not only within the walls of the church, but in our everyday lives. We, the lay people, are in the front line of daily ministry at the workplace, home, school and throughout the community. The service was planned by Lay Leader, Rose Aiello, but several members of the congregation participated during the service, reading from different sections of the sanctuary. The youth message emphasized we are all members of a team that represent Christ to live our lives in a way that honors God. The choir performed a beautiful anthem "Come, Holy Spirit". Four of our older youth performed a fun skit (using the available Two Planks stage!) which led into Rose's main message of the Great Commission (Matthew 28:16-20). We are called to be Great Commission Christians and to build a Great Commission church. Let's be the people in the parade who are bringing others to join the parade, who will bring others who will bring others -- go out to be disciples who make disciples! How "Great" is that!?
