Saturday, December 9, 2017 – 2:00 – 5:00 pm

Service Dogs by Warren Retrievers is a leading service dog organization. They have uniquely trained service dogs that save the lives of people like Kimberly, who is a type 1 diabetic. The dogs are trained to detect fluctuations in blood sugar and if not treated can lead to serious medical complications.

You can help Kimberly Collis and her family who have raised 38% of the $25,000 needed for a Diabetic Alert Dog.

Some of the amazing local vendors attending include:

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH OF MONROE

515 Cutlers Farm Road, Monroe, CT

Finish up your holiday shopping with local crafters and vendors!

Service Dogs by Warren Retrievers (SDWR) is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization.

Your support for a local, Monroe teenager to get a life-saving diabetic alert dog is appreciated!
