Mary Magdalene: Demon possessed to 1st to see Jesus

Jesus cast seven demons out of Mary Magdalene early in his ministry, and then she began to thrive. Sometimes considered the 13th disciple, she was often with Jesus to serve his ministry. She led a group of women to the tomb of Christ, and was the first to see and touch the risen Lord. Follow Mary on this journey from demon-possessed person to almost-disciple.

Jesus: Crucified & Betrayed to Arisen Lord

Jesus knew exactly what was going down—in heaven and on earth—throughout the Crucifixion, until he reached a point where he “became” sin for mankind. At that point, he said to the Father, “Why have you forsaken me?” No one will deny that crucifixion is probably the most terrible way to go ... but it was only the beginning. Jesus began his kingdom by setting captives free. Today he is preparing places for all those who follow him. That includes us! Let’s follow Jesus from shadows and earthquakes and violence to being heralded as the Prince of Peace by all of mankind who choose to believe.

The Women Who Worked for Jesus: Mark 16:1-6

When the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. And they were saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance of the tomb?" And looking up, they saw that the stone had been rolled back – it was very large. And entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe, and they were alarmed.

And an Angel said to them, "Do not be alarmed. You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified..."
