

The Lone Ranger's Creed:

(The moral code upheld by the masked man)

"I believe that...

- to have a friend, a person must be one.*
- all people are created equal and that everyone has within himself the power to make this a better world.*
- God put the firewood there, but every person must gather and light it himself.*
- In being prepared physically, mentally, and morally to fight when necessary for that which is right.*
- A person should make the most of the equipment he/she has.*
- This government, 'of the people, by the people and for the people' shall live always.*
- People should live by the rule of what is best for the greatest number.*
- Sooner or later ... somewhere ... somehow ... we must settle with the world and make payment for what we have taken.*
- All things change but truth, and that truth alone, lives on forever.*

I believe in my Creator, my country, and my fellow man."
