*Please stand if you are able

Today our service is shaped around the twelve days of Christmas, which begins on Christmas Day and ends the day before the celebration of Epiphany. The service is organized around the poem, A New Dial, offering interpretations for each of the different gifts provided by God and tied to our walk of faith.

PRELUDE

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

*OPENING PRAYER (Unison)

Holy God, light of life, it can be difficult to find our way in the murkiness of this world. Shine your light in our hearts and upon your word, which today comes to us in scripture and is interpreted through song, poetry, and creed. May these words settle into our hearts that we might see ourselves and you more clearly. And may you be glorified in our words and our reflection. Amen.

UNISON PRAYER OF CONFESSION:

Loving God - Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, as we come to you in the light of this Christmas week, we admit that there are times when our faith, hope, and charity are not so readily on display. It can be difficult to hold on to our belief and trust in you amidst the trials and busyness of our lives. Sometimes our faith wanes. Forgive us when our faith fails us. Sometimes the bad news of the world can be overwhelming and we lose sight of your promises that light and love will always get the last word. Forgive us when our hope falters. Sometimes in our fear of not having enough, we hold on too tightly to the gifts you give us. Forgive us when we forget how to love our neighbors as ourselves. Bring us back to the tenderness of the manger to restore our faith in our God who risks to be among us, our hope in the one who set the angels to singing, and our generosity to share like the magi who came with gifts. Amen
